

I would like to see closed captioned NEW films at movie theaters to become available at a regular basis! Movie theaters can always provide these equipment in order to read the close captioning that is projected in the 'back' of the room. IMAX in Colorado is already doing that with their films. Thank you.